Skills Analysis

Chief Information Officer

Is & Business Strategy Alignment
- Determine the IS model and enterprise architecture in line with the organization’s policies.
- Provide leadership for the construction and implementation of long-term innovative IS solutions.

IS Governance
- Communicate, propagate and control relevant processes across the entire IT infrastructure.
- Define, deploy and control the management of information systems in line with business imperatives.

Relationship Management
- Identify key relationships that should be initiated to understand the IT demands of the business.
- Lead the design of a workable procedure for maintaining positive business relationships.

Business Plan Development
- Develop business plans.
- Present cost benefit analysis and reasoned arguments in support of the selected strategy.
- Communicate the business plan to relevant stakeholders.

Business Risk Management
- Develop Business Plans.
- Present cost benefit analysis and reasoned arguments in support of the selected strategy.
- Communicate the business plan to relevant stakeholders.

Leadership & Teamwork
- Win trust and support for your leadership.
- Create an environment where team members consistently push to improve performance.
- Ensure that appropriate linkages/partnerships between teams are maintained.

AXELOS Professional Development Programme
To develop and maintain skills essential to your career, join AXELOS’ Professional Development Programme. Our programme has been designed to give you the confidence and tools to keep your skills and knowledge up-to-date and relevant and support you in your professional development and career progression.